PREFATORY NOTE.

The list of Revolutionary Soldiers which follows is copied from a volume recently discovered of payments made to the individuals noted for services chiefly on the Frontiers as Rangers, between the years 1778 and 1783. As the majority of the names appear more than once upon the list, this is owing to the fact that they were paid for different tours of duty. It is to be regretted that the Company designation is not attached to each individual, for had that been the case the men might have been arranged into companies. No year is given for the specified service.

BRICK YARD.

Peter S. Alwine, who owns a brick yard in Paradise Township and one near New Oxford, Adams County, commenced burning brick at Spring Grove in the year 1879, and makes at Spring Forge about 700,000 bricks annually. Ten men are regularly employed. June 26, 1884, the great flood destroyed nearly the entire yard to the amount of $2,000; but in the autumn of the same year it was in full operation at a more secure place. He consumes 300 cords of wood each year.

THE TOWNSHIP OF MANHEIM.

SOME of the first settlers of the southwestern part of this county, emigrated from the Grand-Duchy of Baden, near the historic old town of Manheim, on the Rhine. Michael Danner, who, quite early in the settlement became a large land-owner in this section, when this township was organized, in 1747, requested that it should be called after his native place. It then included almost the entire area of Manheim, West Manheim, Penn and Heidelberg Townships, in York County, and portions of Union and Conewago Townships, in Adams County. Heidelberg was organized in 1750, but originally included what, in the early settlement, was known as "Digges' Choice," and was nearly surrounded by Manheim. In 1816 a petition was presented to court, asking that the northern part of Manheim be added to Heidelberg. The signers to this petition were Daniel Dubbs, Andrew Garrett, Peter Overdier, John Thoman, Christopher Wolford, Conrad Sherman, Andrew Robenstein, Charles Warner and Henry Sherman. The court appointed George Spangler, Jacob Snyser and Charles Fisher viewers. Their report was confirmed, and the area of Manheim was reduced to include its present territory and that of West Manheim.

In the year 1816 Jacob Albrecht and Valentine Wentz each owned an oil-mill; Daniel Dubs, an oil-mill and hemp-mill; Jacob Keller, paper-mill and oil-mill; Jacob Snyder, a paper-mill; Adam Schleeder, a fulling and carding-mill; Peter Reider & John B. Wentz, each a tanyard; Conrad Sherman, a tanyard and distillery, and one slave, the only one owned in the township, which then included West Manheim.

The township, as at present formed, is bounded on the north by Heidelberg, on the east by Codorus, on the south by Maryland, and on the west by West Manheim. The land is undulating, but in general is quite fertile and productive. The Bachman Valley Railroad crosses the southeastern part of the township, and the Hanover & Baltimore passes along its eastern border. There are two postoffices: Xenia and Black Rock, but no villages within its limits.

LUTHERAN AND REFORMED CHURCH.

This is known in the community as "Dubb's Church," and is located four and one-half miles southeast of Hanover. Rev. Samuel Gutelius, pastor of the Reformed Church at Hanover, preached for a time in David Runkle's dwelling-house. Both Reformed and Lutheran clergymen held services for several years in what is known as Wildasin's Schoolhouse near by. In 1853 the present brick church was built.

The Lutheran clergymen since the time of organization, have been Revs. D. P. Rosenmiller, M. J. Alleman, P. Warner, S. Yingling, D. J. Hauer and J. A. Metzgar. The last-named is the present pastor of the Lutheran congregation, whose membership is 190.

The Reformed congregation has been served by Revs. Samuel Gutelius, Jacob Sechler, J. D. Zehring, S. F. Laury, and J. H. Hartman who is present pastor. The membership is 230. A flourishing Union Sunday-school of 160 pupils, is superintended by the two pastors.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Down to the year 1870, Manheim had refused to accept the common school system.

True, for several years the people had elected school directors, after the manner prescribed by law, but with the understanding that the law was not to be put in force; the township, however, was not without schoolhouses and schools.

In the autumn of this year, Prof. S. G. Boyd, then county superintendent, paid this

Introduction

The following men who are listed in this reference aid served during the American Revolution as Frontier Rangers from Washington County, Pennsylvania, being employed against the Indians of the Seneca tribe, and the western tribes of the Ohio country. Washington County, Pennsylvania, became a political entity on March 28, 1781, when it was organized from its parent county of Westmoreland. The men whose names follow are believed to have served as Frontier Rangers from that time until the end of hostilities in late 1782. Washington County men who served prior to 1781, would logically be found listed among the rolls of Westmoreland County Rangers.

All Pennsylvania counties which bordered Indian county maintained companies of Rangers whose sole employment was in the defense of frontier settlements. The companies of Rangers were somewhat smaller than militia companies and usually served under a single officer. Frontier Rangers made frequent forays into wilderness areas along the frontiers and between blockhouses to discover and overtake bands of savages before sufficient numbers could gather to attack white settlements. When a Ranging company fell upon the trail of an Indian party, it was common practice to track the hostiles to their most recent camp, determine the party's strength, and to call in reinforcements to destroy the intruders.

All information recorded in this research aid has been gleaned from the published Pennsylvania Archives from miscellaneous lists of Rangers which remain undated. In only a few instances are the names of the captains of these Washington County Ranging companies known. Little else has remained in the way of rosters of these elite soldiers. There are some instances of duplication of names in the rosters of militia and Rangers due to the fact that some of the Washington County men served in both military organizations. Most apparently remained loyal to the original organization in which they first served. The researcher will notice that some names of Rangers are duplicated in the following list; this has been permitted to present the reader with as many different Pennsylvania Archive references as are available.

Most military researchers and genealogists familiar with the use of the published Pennsylvania Archives use a numerical code to indicate the precise location of a name in the nine series which contain a total of 138 volumes. For the reader's edification, the following example is given; Example: 5-5-100 indicates the location of series 5, volume 5, page 100. In this manner, references to the authorities may easily be given.

Due to a conflict in the charters of Virginia and of William Penn, the ownership of Southwestern Pennsylvania was in dispute until the matter of boundary lines was settled by the Assemblies of Virginia and Pennsylvania on June 23, 1780, in what is known as "The Baltimore Agreement". Until this agreement was reached, both Virginia and Pennsylvania claimed the area, and both established civil, and later, military governments in order to solidify their respective claims. The Iroquois' claim to the area had been extinguished by the Ft. Stanwix (Rome), N.Y. treaty by which the Indians relinquished their claims to the land south and east of the Allegheny and Ohio Rivers. This opened a veritable floodgate of settlement, Virginians moving north along the old Braddock Road, while Pennsylvanians moved westward along the Forbes Road.

Pennsylvania organized Westmoreland County on February 26, 1773, from its parent county of Bedford, while Virginia established the West Augusta District, a sub-district of Augusta County, Virginia in 1775. Laurel Hill in Pennsylvania separated Bedford and Westmoreland counties in the east, but the western boundaries of the claim were rather vague. Pennsylvania's claim, for instance, included all of present-day Westmoreland and Indiana counties, the southern halves of Armstrong, Allegheny and Beaver counties, and all of Washington, Greene and Fayette. Virginia's claim was somewhat more extensive than that of Pennsylvania.

The outbreak of hostilities on April 19, 1775, at Lexington and Concord complicated the matter of conflicting claims, but also set both state governments upon a course of accomodation and conciliation which resulted in the acceptance of "The Baltimore Agreement," in 1780, which transferred most of the disputed area to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The boundaries were fixed by extending the Mason and Dixon line to a point five degrees west of the Delaware River, and then extending a line from that point directly north to the Ohio River. The Pennsylvania General Assembly moved quickly to solidify its claim upon the new territory by the organization of Washington County on March 28, 1781. This new county, Pennsylvania's twelfth, in 1781 included present-day Washington and Greene counties and Beaver County south of the Ohio River.

With the fever of war running high in Southwestern Pennsylvania, in 1775, both state governments moved quickly to establish military organizations for the protection of the frontier settlements. Virginia troops under the command of Captain John Neville took command of Ft. Pitt (Pittsburgh) in 1775, and maintained control of the area in the name of Virginia until Neville relinquished command on June 1, 1777, to Brigadier Edward Hand of the Continental Army. In the fall of 1775, Colonel William Crawford raised the 7th Virginia Regiment among the Virginia settlers of the area, and surrendering command to Colonel John Gibson, later raised an additional regiment, the 13th Virginia, which he himself commanded. The Pennsylvanians raised Associator and militia companies in Westmoreland County near the town of Hannastown, and by a resolution of Congress passed July 15, 1776, raised the 8th Pennsylvania Regiment of Line for use against the Indians. Perhaps the most important step taken was the "Treaty of Pittsburgh" which was signed at Ft. Pitt in 1775 between whites and the western tribes which guaranteed that all land north of the Ohio River would remain in Indian hands. Thus, the Southwestern Pennsylvania frontier was spared the honors of an Indian war until the treaty was broken in late 1777.

The succeeding commanders of the Western Department of the Continental Army were generally unsuccessful in carrying the war to the Indians, and border depredations continued on an almost daily basis throughout the war. In August, 1779, Colonel Daniel Brodhead, then commander of Ft. Pitt, led a raid up the Allegheny River to present-day Warren County and there destroyed a large Seneca Indian village. This successful expedition greatly lessened the intensity of Indian attacks for the next two years. Colonel Archibald Lockry commanded a party of Washington County men who were making their way down the Ohio River where they were to join General George Rodgers Clark at the junction of the Kanawha and Ohio Rivers. Lockry was captured, however, and he and forty-two of his men were massacred by the savages on August 24, 1781. Warfare on the frontier had reached such a vicious stage that seldom was quarter asked or given.

On February 10, 1782, a Shawnese war party abducted Mrs. Robert Wallace and her three children of Washington County, precipitating the massacre of christian Moravian Indians at Gnadenhutten three weeks later. The village of Warfare on the frontier had reached such a vicious stage that seldom was quarter asked or given.

On February 10, 1782, a Shawnee war party abducted Mrs. Robert Wallace and her three children of Washington County, precipitating the massacre of Christian Moravian Indians at Gnadenhutten three weeks later. The village of Gnadenhutten was the main quarters of christian Indians in Ohio, and although they professed their neutrality, whites believed they had aided the western tribes in making war on white settlements in Pennsylvania. Enraged by the abduction of Mrs. Wallace, 160 mounted men of Washington County, under Colonel David Williamson, set off into Indian country to retrieve her and the children. Her lifeless naked body was found impaled on a sapling along the trail to Gnadenhutten. Colonel Williamson's party summarily massacred 96 of the christian Indians with hatchets.

Upon the return of the Williamson party to Washington County, plans were discussed for a much larger foray into the Sandusky River country to deal a similar, final blow to the western tribes. Popular opinion was such that Brigadier William Irvine, commander at Ft. Pitt, granted permission for an all volunteer force of Washington County men, under Colonel William Crawford to undertake the mission. Colonel Crawford was a regular army officer from Westmoreland County, previously having given his allegiance to Virginia before the boundary agreement of 1780. Crawford's men left Washington County on May 23, 1782, arriving on the Sandusky plain on June 4, where a skirmish with the Indians ensued. On the following day, the Indians were reinforced by a British detachment from Ft. Detroit, causing a general retreat of the Crawford party toward the Ohio River. The retreat over a two day period became a rout, and twenty-five men were captured and tortured to death.

All Indians being emboldened by the victory over the Crawford party, Seneca Indians and white Canadian Rangers attacked and burned Hannastown, county seat of Westmoreland County, on July 13, 1782. The settlers had been forewarned and all arrived safely at the fort north of Hannastown before the savages staged their assault. Only one life was lost; that of an unfortunate girl who was struck by a stray musket ball. Throughout the remainder of the Revolution, alarms were caused by Indian forays and incursions in both Washington and Westmoreland counties. Although a great clamor arose in both counties to prosecute a vigorous new campaign against the western tribes, General Irvine was notified by letter on October 30, 1782, from the Secretary of War that no further actions were to be undertaken. Because peace had been proclaimed, Indian depredations generally ceased in Southwestern Pennsylvania by January, 1783. The men whose names follow served as Frontier Rangers in Washington County, Pennsylvania, and were participants in the foregoing events.

HISTORY

OHIO,

WITH

Illustrations and Biographical Sketches

SOME OF ITS PROMINENT MEN AND PIONEERS.

[by Horace Mack]

PHILADELPHIA:
D. W. ENSIGN & CO.

—1879.—

present about 50 members. The ruling elders are Samuel Wallace, A. L. Martin, John Kerr, and Albert Bonnett; and the trustees, Andrew Kneasel, James A. Davison, and Jacob Musser. The congregation maintains a Sunday-school which numbers 60 members, and has A. L. Martin for superintendent.

THE CHURCH OF THE EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION AT NEW SPRINGFIELD.

Before 1850 members of this faith had occasional preaching by the ministers of the Columbiana County circuit, and a class was formed embracing the Schade, Felger, and Snyder families. Worship was held in private houses and in the school-house until 1870, when their present church-edifice was erected, and was the first in the village. The building committee was composed of Rev. J. Q. A. Weller, John Peters, and Jesse Smith. The house has respectable proportions, and was dedicated by Bishop Dubs. The present board of trustees are Benjamin Felger, Philip Felger, John Peters, Daniel Diser, and George Koons.

The members, numbering 52, form one class under the leadership of Benjamin Felger. Rev. Wilson Diser resides here as a local minister, and is also the superintendent of a flourishing Sabbath-school, having 76 members. This appointment is connected with the North Lima church, and [illegible] church of the Evangelical Association at New Middlle[illegible], in forming a circuit, served by one pastor. Since 1877 the minister has been the Rev. J. D. Domer, residing at North Lima, in the parsonage of the circuit. Other ministers from the time the denomination began its work in these parts, in 1836, have been the Revs. Elias Stoever, S. Vangundey, George Dressell, C. G. Koch, Joseph Truby, Abraham Loehner, Joseph Dick, D. L. Miller, A. Stahley, A. Long, S. F. Crowther, G. W. Reisinger, Jacob Rank, G. S. Domer, J. D. Hollinger, J. J. Bernhart, J. Q. A. Weller, C. W. Davis, W. Houpt, and H. B. Summers.

The church at New Middleton embraced among its original members the Pitts and Miller families. Through the efforts of John Miller a small frame meeting-house was erected for the use of the denomination some time about 1845. This property is now controlled by G. P. Hoffmaster, Henry Pitts, A. S. McCurling, Peter Coller, and Henry Spitler, as trustees. Fifty-five persons constitute the membership, and Wm. R. Martin is the leader of the class. A Sunday-school, having 80 members, is under the superintendence of Dr. R. L. Floor.

THE BETHEL MEETING OF THE BRETHREN OF MAHONING DISTRICT.

Some of the early settlers of the northwestern part of Springfield maintained the faith of the Brethren, or Dunkers, and meetings, according to their customs, have been held in houses, barns, and groves since 1820. Among the early members were John Summers, David Summers, Jacob Summers, David Brown, Jacob Haas, Mathias Haas, L. Shoemaker, and Henry Kurtz. The latter was one of the preachers more than thirty years. His predecessor was George Hoke. The preachers of a later day were James Quinter, Daniel Summers, and Richard Brenneman.

The present preachers are Jacob H. Kurtz and Jonas Hoke. About 1818 the first meeting-house was built on the Summers farm, near the southwest corner of section 5. This gave place, in 1873, to the present structure, a frame, 44 by 50 feet, occupying the same site. It is controlled by trustees, Simeon Longanecker, Eli Ruhlman, and Simeon Summers. The meeting is connected with the one on Zion Hill, in Beaver township, and has much the same history. At Bethel is a good Sunday-school, superintended by E. H. Ruhlman.

CEMETERIES.

The cemetery used by the Brethren was located at an early day, near the centre of section 5, and is still continued there, although its situation is very inconvenient. The oldest cemetery in the township is the one connected with the old Springfield church. It contains a great many graves, some of which are marked by monuments of very creditable appearance. Many bear inscriptions in the German. Nearly all the churches maintain their own cemeteries, and, as a rule, they indicate that proper respect has been shown for the resting-places of the dead.

At Petersburgh a large cemetery has lately been located by some of the public-spirited citizens of the place. It embraces about four acres, situated on a little knoll north of the village, giving it excellent natural drainage. The grounds have been inclosed with a neat fence, and otherwise materially improved. With proper care it will become one of the finest cemeteries in this part of the country.

steady but constant growth has marked the progress of the schools under the present administration. The attendance at the High School has increased from 125 pupils to 146 and many additions have been made to the school equipment in laboratories and books. A great gain is shown in the quality of all the work and the standard of scholarship is recognized as so excellent that graduates are admitted without examinations to all leading colleges. There are five teachers in the High school, 28 grade teachers, one instructor in music and one in writing and drawing and a substitute teacher, who also serves as assistant in the superintendent's office.

Mr. Johnson's efforts are appreciated and are met with the hearty cooperation of the progressive and intelligent citizens of Salem, who take a just pride in their fine schools.

OBADIAH C. STIVER, a leading and influential resident of Leetonia, was reared and educated in Columbiana County, although he was born in Beaver township, Mahoning County, Ohio, October 23, 1846. His parents were Frederick B. and Catherine (Summers) Stiver and his grandfather, John Stiver. The last named was born in Germany but emigrated to America in 1818 and engaged in farming in Columbiana County, Ohio, for the rest of his life. It was here, in 1821, that Frederick B. Stiver was born. He was also an agriculturist and a man highly esteemed by his neighbors as a peaceful, thrifty citizen. He was a strong Democrat but did not take an active part in politics, devoting his time to carrying on his farming operations by which he accumulated considerable means and left a neat property to his heirs. His death occurred in 1888. He married Catherine Summers, a daughter of John B. Summers, who was a pioneer of Columbiana County, coming from Philadelphia and purchasing the land which was later the birthplace of Mrs. Stiver and is now the site of Leetonia.

O. C. Stiver attended school in the Cherry Fork district and when he had reached his majority started West to see the country that lay beyond the great Mississippi. The trip across the plains was taken in 1868 and consumed almost three months of travel—an experience varied and exciting and never to be forgotten. He reached Colorado and from there extended his journey into Wyoming where he remained for almost nine years, becoming a typical cowboy of the plains and enjoying to the full the wild, rugged life of the ranch, the herding of cattle and horses and the exhilarating and often dangerous rides across the stretches of prairie which his work required. In 1876 Mr. Stiver returned to this county and engaged in farming for about four years and then joined a small company and sunk a coal shaft with the expectation of opening up a rich bed of mineral. This hope proved futile, and after operating the mine at a loss for several years he abandoned the undertaking and went to New Mexico, where he became interested in gold and silver mining at Fairview and Kingston. This investment was more satisfactory than the coal venture and Mr. Stiver still retains an interest in it and also owns considerable real estate there. He was called home at the expiration of three years by the death of his father and has since made Leetonia his home, taking charge of the large estate that was left. In 1901 he went to Oklahoma and bought largely of property at Anadarko, spending three months there. In addition to his large private business, Mr. Stiver has taken a deep interest in the municipal affairs of the city and has willingly given his services when they have been needed for the good of the community. He has served as mayor of Leetonia, was assessor of Salem township for eight years and is always among the promoters of all movements looking for the benefit of the general public. His name has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for the office of mayor on the Democratic ticket that is to be presented to the voters in the fall of 1905. Mr. Stiver is past chancellor of Firestone Lodge, No. 47, K. of P., and represented that body in the Grand Lodge at various times.

Chapter XV.

A BARGAIN DEAL IN HATS.

One of the first settlers in Springfield Township was John Summers a Dunkard, who established his home in the north west part early in 1802.

Summers proved to be one of the few pioneers who kept a written record of events partaining to his family, and general community history. This family tradition has continued up to the present generation. Summers was a true example of the prosperous Pennsylvania Dutch farmer, noted for solid prosperity, permanent citizenry and large family.

By the summer of 1835 Summers and his good wife had been blessed with a remarkably large family of twenty one sons and three daughters.

On or about this time an enterprising hat maker had opened up a shop at Ginger Hill on the south east corner of the road intersection to the appreciation and great interest of the community.

True to the social standards of pioneer days, Summers one day on returning from the flax mill at New Middletown, stopped at the hat shop to make a social call and get acquainted with his new neighbor.

During the course of the visit the proprietor attempted to sell Summers a new hat, but was told he would be interested a little later in getting a new hat for each of his boys. The proprietor with an eye for business asked Summers how many boys he had, and was told 21, the hat maker believed him joking and volumteered the statement that if Summers had 21 boys, and would bring them to the hat makers hop at the same time he would be glad to present each with a new hat.

Summers to the astonishment of the proprietor accepted the proposition, returned home immediately, and hitching his team to the hay wagon, loaded his 21 boys on the conveyance and hauled them to the hat shop, where true to his word the proprietor gave each a new hat. This event was to add popularity not only to the Summers family, but to the old hat shop of Ginger Hill over a period of many years.

SUMMERS CEMETERY
Springfield Tp., Mahoning Co.

The Summers Cemetery, sometimes called Kurtz Cemetery, is located in Section 5 of Springfield Tp. in Mahoning Co.Ohio, on the east side of Springfield Road, about 1/2 mi. north of East Calla Road. The cemetery is not visible from the road, being hidden in the woods on land belonging to an adjacent farmhouse. Permission must be obtained before visiting the cemetery on private land.

History: Summers Cemetery used by the Brethren was located at an early day, near the center of Section 5, and is still (1879) continued there, although its situation is very inconvient. Some of the early settlers of the northwestern part of the township maintained the faith of the Brethren, or Dunkers, and meetings, according to their customs, have been held in houses, barns and groves since 1820. Among the early members were John Summers, David Summers, Jacob Summers, David Brown, Jacob Haas, Mathias Haas, L.Showmaker, and Henry Kurtz. The latter was one of the preachers more than 30 years. His predecessor was George Hoke. The preachers of a later day were James Quinter, Daniel Summers, and Richard Brenneman. The present preachers are Jacob H. Kurtz and Jonas Hoke. About 1848 the first meeting house was built on the Summers farm, near the southwest corner of Section 5. This gave place, in 1873, to the present structure, a frame building 44 by 50 feet, occupying the same site. It is controlled by trustees Simeon Longanecker, Eli Rhulman, and Simeon Summers. This meeting is connected with the one on Zion Hill in Beaver Township, and has much the same history. It is known as the Bethel Meeting of the Brethren of Mahoning District. (from: History of Columbiana Co.Ohio, by Horace Mack, 1879, p321.)

Very near to this site, the GOSPEL VISITOR, a publication of the Brethren society was first published by Elder Henry Kurtz and James Quinter. "In 1857, Revs. Kurtz and Quinter began, at Columbiana, the publication of the GOSPEL VISITOR a German and English monthly devoted to the interests of their society, the Dunkers. In 1866 the office was removed from Columbiana to Dayton." Henry Kurtz and his wife were originally buried here at the Summers Cemetery, but were later re-interred at Zion Hill Church of the Brethren Cemetery in Beaver Township.

The land for this cemetery was originally donated by Johannes Summer, the Revolutionary Soldier buried here. At one time, the church was located across the road from the cemetery, but due to the flooding of the land for what is now called Evans Lake, the church was moved to Woodworth, and is now known as Woodworth Church of the Brethren, at 30 East Western Reserve Road.

During the summer of 1972, the members of Rachel Fowler Society, Children of the American Revolution, of Poland Ohio, undertook the restoration of the cemetery as their conservation project. Grapevine and brambles were cut away, obstructing trees were removed, a new fence was built, and the broken and toppled stones were mended and reset. Seedling pine trees were planted to form a natural boundary line and to prevent erosion of the hillside. Nearly 300 man-hours were spent in this restoration project to restore this pioneer cemetery.

BARBARA SUMMERS BRANCH OF THE FAMILY

BARBARA SUMMERS BRANCH OF THE FAMILY Janice Stump : Saturday, March 25, 2000

I just received a couple of letters from a lady named July Garloch. They are printed below. For those of you who are seriously interested in all branches of the family, this is a great bit of news. I have invited Judy to participate in this site. You can click on her name in the member list to get her email address.

to: jstump@tritel.net
Barbara Summers was the l4th child , I believe, of Johannes Summers and Elizabeth Snyder. Johannes was my great=great grandfather. My great-grandfather was his youngest son and born to his 3rd wife. Elizabeth was his 2nd wife. Johannes had 16 children. I have Barbara's name listed as Stump for her married name. There must be thousands and thousands of people related through the Summers name. There is a Summers cemetary near Poland ,Ohio where Johannes is buried.

Hi, I'm actually Judy Garloch. I used my husbands E Mail address. I am really just getting started, although I have alot of Summers history just by word of mouth. Can you imagine a Summers reunion? I have been on so many sites and I am still confused on this computer. I think it was on Cyndislist. I received all the names of Johannes' children from a lady (relative)outside of Youngstown whose family still live on the D.O. Summers farm. I certainly would like to see pictures. I really don't know much about the other Summers'. My great grandfather had two boys I believe, Samuel Summers and Rollin Summers. Samuel was my grandfather. Samuel and my grandmother, Delilah Shonce Summers had 8 children including my mother, Ellen. I was born when my Mom was 38 years old (I'm now 62) So I heard and listened to more of what my Mother said. The cemetary where Johannes is buried is also known as the Kurtz cemetary in some record books but the sign outside the cemetary says "Summers Burying Ground". It used to be so nice when I was young going there. The wild flowers in the spring made it beautiful. Then some people from New Middletown, Ohio found it and "cleaned it up" and put the sign out. We went there last Memorial Day and they had taken down the iron fence my grandfather had put up and put up a wooden one. They also opened up access to it so I think kids go in there to drink, etc. It is near Evans Lake in Springfield Township. It's just off Springfield Road which runs off Western Reserve Road just about directly opposite Evans Lake. I have an article about theD.O. Summers farm I could send you. I as yet am not quite focused on exactly how I'm researching and who I'm researching. This , to me is really exiting. Our branch of the Summers' family are all intelligent and also have some really eccentric members, which I love.

INTRODUCTION

This Special Publication is an alphabetized listing of the names found on Collector's Warrants of York County, PA, for December, 1771. Collector's Warrants are known to exist for only 18 of the townships then in existence. As with Special Publications Numbers 5,6,8, and 9, the main value of this Special Publication is as a location finding aid.

Microfilm copies of the original Warrants are available for viewing at The Historical Society of York County, York, PA, and the Wm. Penn Memorial Museum & Archives Building (PA. Historical & Museum Commission) in Harrisburg, PA.

Information and spelling given on the Warrants included in this Special Publication is as found on the originals. Where something written on an original Warrant has a line drawn through it we have included the writing and then typed a line through as in the original. The Cumberland Twp. Warrant has two illegible names(one surname beginning with "G" and one beginning with "P") that have not been included. All names on the other Warrants have been included. For a few surnames it was difficult to ascertain the exact spelling. We have included these names, but have enclosed them in parenthesis, with a question mark, to indicate that the spelling might possibly be in error.

Springfield Township was never part of the Connecticut Western Reserve. Originally all this stretch of territory was included in Columbiana County when that unit was formed. The distinction between this part of Mahoning County and the remaining parts is easy to note. The Connecticut and New England influence was less vital here in the early days and the Pennsylvania element stronger. The townships in this lower tier are also of different size. Instead of the township five miles square that is common on the Western Reserve, Beaver, Springfield and Smith townships are six miles square, while Goshen and Green townships are slightly smaller owing to the projection of Perry Township, Columbiana County, into these townships. All five of these lower townships were part of Columbiana County until Mahoning County was formed in 1846.

Apparently the first settlers in Springfield Township were Peter Musser and Israel Warner who came from York County, Pennsylvania, in 1801 and located just north of the present Village of Petersburg. Musser built a sawmill and grist mill and farmed on a large scale. Adam Hohn located in the township in 1801, Daniel Miller, from Adams County, Pennsylvania, C. Seidner and C. Menztzer from Maryland, John Summers of York County, Pennsylvania, and George Stump and his three sons in 1802. Henry Myers came in 1803, John Shoemaker in 1804, and from this year until 1810 immigration was fairly rapid. Pennsylvanians, many of them "Pennsylvania Dutch," were pioneers in Springfield.

Petersburg was founded by Peter Musser about 1805 and after his death it was named in his honor. Musser was the original storekeeper as well as the first miller and sawyer, the original grist mills being supplanted in 1874 by a modern steam sawmill. Under the name of Musser's Mills a postoffice was established at Petersburg in 1811 with Jacob Musser as postmaster and in 1815 James Wallace opened a store there, although a pioneer tavern had been kept earlier by Peter Musser at his farm house. A foundry, carriage shop and other small industries were later established at Petersburg. The first physician was Dr. Luther Spellman.

The big mill of the Petersburg Milling Company is the principal industry of this village today. The merchants include: Knesal Bros., hardware, slating and tinning; J. G. Swisher, general merchandise; Richard Winters, groceries, auto accessories and gasoline, and the Schiller Drug Company's store. Carl Schiller is postmaster and C. C. Hasbrouck proprietor of the village hotel. Petersburg is also the home of Starlight Lodge, No. 224, Knights of Pythias. The population is approximately 300.

New Springfield was laid out in the early '20s by Abraham Christ and a small store was opened there by Joseph Davis. Later a postoffice was established and small hotels opened while a number of small industrial plants were built. Dr. Louis Zeigler was the first physician.

The present industries of New Springfield include the Reesch-Printz Basket Factory, Star Basket Factory, W. H. Shoup Ladder Works, and Clark Reesch Cider Mill. H. O. Brown is the proprietor of a large gen-

Dear Mr. Summer:

Your letter of November 13th concerning the early colonial settlers that came from Pennsylvania to South Carolina about 1745-1760 has been received.

We have no compiled data or the migration of these early settlers to South Carolina. The Leitner and Cromer families are found in York County even down to the present day. York County was erected from Lancaster County in 1749 and the first York County court was held October, 1749. So the space of time in which York County legal records could carry transactions of families that left York County for South Carolina before 1760 would be short.

There was a John Summer who lived in Manheim Township, York County, Pennsylvania, and died there April, 1773. His wife was Catharina -------. This man, "supposedly the immigrant ancestor of the Summer family, was born in Switzerland, according to tradition, departing from his native land stealthily at night and leaving all his possessions.

"Religious persecution is given as the motive. Assuming that he is our immigrant ancestor, it seems probable that he was one or the other of these two immigrants:

"John Sumer, who arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Phoenix, John Mason, Master; from Rotterdam, September 15, 1749.

"Johannes Sommer, who arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship Brothers, Captain William Muir; from Rotterdam, September 22, 1752.

"No trace of John's activities from the time of his arrival in America until 1768 have yet been found. In that year records show him to have served as Overseer of the Poor in Manheim Township, York County, Pennsylvania.

"Children of John and Catharine Summer:

1. John^2 born September 6, 1752; died November 6, 1838; married (1)---------; (2) Elizabeth Snyder; (3) Sarah Hahn.

Dear Sirs:

Mrs. Melvin B. Summers of McLean, Va. tells me that she gave Mr. Summers notes on the Summers fam ily to your Socity to get into shape. As he was working on that family for the descendants in this locality and I have several ladies desirous to join the Daughters of the American Revolution, perhaps you can give me some assistance from his papers.

John (2) and Peter(2) sons of John Summers(1) of York Co. came out to Columbiana Co. Ohio(now in Mahoning Co.)
John (1) died in York Co. in 1773.perhaps Hanover Twp.
John (2) " in Columbiana Co. Ohio in 1838 and mentioned about eleven children of his reputed twenty three(had married three times) in his will.
One wife seems to have been Catherine(Kitty)
another wife was Elizabeth
I am interested in their son Peter (3) especially.
Peter (2) Mahoning Co. History states he was an "Amish Mennoite" and John (2) was a Dunkard. Peter(2) had a wife named Sarah-- and their daughter Maria or Mary m. Christian Stoltzfus(5)
John (4),Christian (3),(2) and Nicholas (1)Stoltzfus.
Would like a Revolution record for a Stolfus , John or Christian.

When we find more information on the Columbiana Co. family, I will be glad to send it to you to file with the Melvin Summers material.

Truly Yours,
(Miss) Eva a Scott

present about 50 members. The ruling elders are Samuel Wallace, A. L. Martin, John Kerr, and Albert Bonnett; and the trustees, Andrew Kneasel, James A. Davison, and Jacob Musser. The congregation maintains a Sunday-school which numbers 60 members, and has A. L. Martin for superintendent.

THE CHURCH OF THE EVANGELICAL ASSOCIATION AT NEW SPRINGFIELD.

Before 1850 members of this faith had occasional preaching by the ministers of the Columbiana County circuit, and a class was formed embracing the Schade, Felger, and Snyder families. Worship was held in private houses and in the school-house until 1870, when their present church-edifice was erected, and was the first in the village. The building committee was composed of Rev. J. Q. A. Weller, John Peters, and Jesse Smith. The house has respectable proportions, and was dedicated by Bishop Dubs. The present board of trustees are Benjamin Felger, Philip Felger, John Peters, Daniel Diser, and George Koons.

The members, numbering 52, form one class under the leadership of Benjamin Felger. Rev. Wilson Diser resides here as a local minister, and is also the superintendent of a flourishing Sabbath-school, having 76 members. This appointment is connected with the North Lima church, and the church of the Evangelical Association at New Middlleton, in forming a circuit, served by one pastor. Since 1877 the minister has been the Rev. J. D. Domer, residing at North Lima, in the parsonage of the circuit. Other ministers from the time the denomination began its work in these parts, in 1836, have been the Revs. Elias Stoever, S. Vangundey, George Dressell, C. G. Koch, Joseph Truby, Abraham Loehner, Joseph Dick, D. L. Miller, A. Stahley, A. Long, S. F. Crowther, G. W. Reisinger, Jacob Rank, G. S. Domer, J. D. Hollinger, J. J. Bernhart, J. Q. A. Weller, C. W. Davis, W. Houpt, and H. B. Summers.

The church at New Middleton embraced among its original members the Pitts and Miller families. Through the efforts of John Miller a small frame meeting-house was erected for the use of the denomination some time about 1845. This property is now controlled by G. P. Hoffmaster, Henry Pitts, A. S. McCurling, Peter Coller, and Henry Spitler, as trustees. Fifty-five persons constitute the membership, and Wm. R. Martin is the leader of the class. A Sunday-school, having 80 members, is under the superintendence of Dr. R. L. Floor.

THE BETHEL MEETING OF THE BRETHREN OF MAHONING DISTRICT.

Some of the early settlers of the northwestern part of Springfield maintained the faith of the Brethren, or Dunkers, and meetings, according to their customs, have been held in houses, barns, and groves since 1820. Among the early members were John Summers, David Summers, Jacob Summers, David Brown, Jacob Haas, Mathias Haas, L. Shoemaker, and Henry Kurtz. The latter was one of the preachers more than thirty years. His predecessor was George Hoke. The preachers of a later day were James Quinter, Daniel Summers, and Richard Brenneman.

The present preachers are Jacob H. Kurtz and Jonas Hoke. About 1848 the first meeting-house was built on the Summers farm, near the southwest corner of section 5. This gave place, in 1873, to the present structure, a frame, 44 by 50 feet, occupying the same site. It is controlled by trustees, Simeon Longanecker, Eli Ruhlman, and Simeon Summers. The meeting is connected with the one on Zion Hill, in Beaver township, and has much the same history. At Bethel is a good Sunday-school, superintended by E. H. Ruhlman.

CEMETERIES.

The cemetery used by the Brethren was located at an early day, near the centre of section 5, and is still continued there, although its situation is very inconvenient. The oldest cemetery in the township is the one connected with the old Springfield church. It contains a great many graves, some of which are marked by monuments of very creditable appearance. Many bear inscriptions in the German. Nearly all the churches maintain their own cemeteries, and, as a rule, they indicate that proper respect has been shown for the resting-places of the dead.

At Petersburgh a large cemetery has lately been located by some of the public-spirited citizens of the place. It embraces about four acres, situated on a little knoll north of the village, giving it excellent natural drainage. The grounds have been inclosed with a neat fence, and otherwise materially improved. With proper care it will become one of the finest cemeteries in this part of the country.

Having disposed of his York County property, John moved with his family to Columbiana County, Ohio, to which county his father and his numerous brothers and sisters had migrated some ten years or so previous. He settled in Salem Township, on a tract of land of acres, acquired from
In the early part of 1820, five years after coming to Ohio, his wife, Leah, died, leaving him five children, ranging in age from two and a half to fourteen years. The exact date of her death is unknown, but that it was early in 1820 seems probable from the fact that on April 17, 1820, John, the father, was appointed guardian of the five children, to care for their interest in their mother's estate, inherited from her father, Henry Danner, "the Elder." This inheritance was the 1/4 part of £900 (equal to $2,400), being $600, the same to be paid in installments of $100 each at intervals of four years, beginning April 1, 1819 and terminating April 1, 1839. As guardian of his and Leah's children, John also received $84, as Leah's share of her mother, Elizabeth Danner's estate.

Seeking a mother for his children, John married as his second wife, Elizabeth Stuckey, near the end of 1820. She was born in Snake Spring Valley, Bedford County, Pa., and migrated with her parents to Washington Township, Stark County, Ohio, in 1811. Her mother, Catharine Studebaker, was descended from the celebrated Studebaker family, of industrial fame in the United States.

John and Elizabeth shared life's joys, responsibilities and sorrows for at least 35 years, for they were both still living at the time of the death of their son, Samuel, in 1855. Opposed to ostentation and show as a matter of principle throughout their lives, their bodies, as well as those of their unmarried children, repose in unmarked graves in the Mennonite Cemetery at Leetonia, Ohio. Both were members of the German Baptist Church (now called Church of the Brethren).

Some years prior to their death, they divided their earthly possessions among the four living children of the second marriage, the two daughters receiving their patrimony in money and the two sons in farming land, the eldest son, John B., receiving 120 acres, including the homestead buildings, and Samuel 114 acres.

REVOLUTIONARY WAR VET GRAVESITE — Hidden among the trees and brush a cemetery in Springfield Township is being restored by the Rachel Fowler Society, Children of the American Revolution. Here Mrs. Carol Bell, a society member and genealogist records the information from the grave marker of Johannes Summer who died at the age of 86 and had fought in the Revolutionary War.

Society Clears Growth, Will Reset Stones—

Restores Springfield Twp. Cemetery

By KARL E. SCHWAB

NEW SPRINGFIELD—The process of restoring a one-acre cemetery buried deep on the Ed Schiller farm, with graves dating back to 1826 and including the resting place of a Revolutionary War soldier, is under way here headed by members of the Rachel Fowler Society, Children of the American Revolution.

The Summer Cemetery, located off Springfield Road about one mile south of Western Reserve Road, was completely covered with dense growth and underbrush as well as trees, grapevines and myrtle. The foliage hid many of the headstones when 11 members of the society moved last Sunday to begin the cleanup operation.

Mrs. Carol Bell, president of the Mahoning County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogist Society, reports the last burial to take place in the cemetery was in 1920. She estimates more than 50 persons are buried there, adding, "I really don't know the last time the cemetery was properly cared for."

The land has been turned over to the Springfield Township trustees, but because of manpower shortages they have been unable to properly maintain the property.

Mrs. Bell notes the trustees tried several times last fall to restore the graveyard but found the task too time consuming.

Nearly 43 man-hours were logged Sunday by the crew of 11, but reports indicate up to 20 more days will be required to restore the land.

The cemetery originally served as the Dunkard Church Cemetery. The Dunkard Church, founded in 1873, was later replaced by the present frame church, called the Bethel Church of the Brethren, which has since been relocated on Calla Road.

Conducts Project

Mrs. Bell explains she became interested in the cemetery through a project begun by the genealogical society which is trying to locate every cemetery in the state. "We noted that a cemetery was marked on the map for this area but were unable to find it because of the growth," she said.

After finding the cemetery, she explains, "We discovered the tombstone of Johannes Summers, marked 1752 to 1838. Summers served as a Pennsylvanian in the American Revolution."

She adds that many headstones have fallen from their foundations and have been covered by dirt. "We are working to dig them out and plan to reset all of the fallen stones," said Mrs. Bell.

Graves Moved

The graves of the Rev. Jacob Kurtz and his wife were originally in this cemetery but later were moved by members of their family to a burial plot in a Poland cemetery. The Rev. Mr. Kurtz established one of the first printing presses in the area and used it to print church bulletins.

Current plans call for members of the society to continue working each Sunday until the cemetery restoration is complete.

JOHN SUMMER^1

b ; d in Manheim Tp., York County, Pa., April, , 1773;

John^1, supposedly the immigrant ancestor of the Summer family, was born in Switzerland, according to tradition, departing from his native land stealthily at night and leaving all his possessions. Religious persecution is given as the motive. Assuming that he is our immigrant ancestor, it seems probable that he was one or the other of these two immigrants:

Johns Sumer, who arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship "Phoenix," John Mason, Master; from Rotterdam, Sept. 15, 1749.
Johannes Sommer, who arrived at Philadelphia on the Ship "Brothers," Capt. William Muir; from Rotterdam, Sept. 22, 1752.

We have as yet found no trace of John^1's activities from the time of his arrival in America to 1768. In that year records show him to have served as Overseer of the Poor in Manheim Tp., York County.

Upon John^1's death in 1773, his wife Catharine was appointed by the Court as ~~Executrix~~ Administratrix of his estate, he having died intestate. Besides a large amount of personal property, such as farming equipment and household effects, livestock, etc., the estate consisted of a plantation of about 170 acres, situated in Manheim Tp., and "adjoining lands of Adam Graver, the Maryland line, Henry Hartman, and Adam Steinbaugh." Upon the petition of John^2, the estate was sold and the proceeds divided among the widow and the children, John^2, as the eldest son, receiving "two shares," as against one share for each of the other children. The plantation was appraised at "350 pounds lawful money of Pennsylvania."

In two separate petitions to the Court, the widow and administratrix, Catharine, asked for appointment of guardians for her sons "Andrew and Peter, both under the age of 14 years", and and for "Barbara, aged 14 years, and Christian aged 16 years and upwards." John Welty was appointed guardian for the first two and Christian Bechtel for the last two.

Christian Sommer was a resident of Frederick County, Md., adjacent to York County, Pa., according to the Census of 1790. Was this Christian the same man as Christian^{2}? At the same time there were resident in Frederick County, Jacob Summers, Jacob Sommers, and Thomas Sommers.

Christian Summers donated 10 bushels of lime valued at 10 shillings a bushel for the building of a school-house by the German Lutheran Congregation at New Holland, Lancaster Co., 1786. Was this Christian^{2}?

JOHN SUMMER^2 John^1

b Sept. 6, 1752; d Nov. 6, 1838; m 1st, m 2d, Elizabeth Snyder; b ; d between Nov. 1815 and July, 1817.
m 3d, Sarah Hahn, (?) April 8, 1820.

The birthplace of John^2 is uncertain, inasmuch as the date of immigration of his father, John^1, from Switzerland to the New World, is uncertain. Immigrant lists of ships bringing passengers to Philadelphia, the most likely point of debarkation, show only two persons bearing the name of John Summer, or its variations. They are:

"Johns Sumer, on Ship Phoenix, John Mason, Master; from Rotterdam, Sept. 15, 1749" and
"Johannes Sommer, on Ship Brothers, Capt. William Muir, from Rotterdam, Sept. 22, 1752

The variations in the spelling of the family name have no real significance, since the immigrant lists were prepared by the captain of the vessel, and he spelled the names as they sounded when given him verbally by the passengers. In some immigrant lists the names were recorded by the Clerk of the Court at Philadelphia, who administered the oath or pledge of allegiance to the Crown of Great Britain. It is possible that John^1 may have debarked at Baltimore, but, unfortunately, no lists of immigrants arriving at that port are extant.

If the John^1 Summer, founder of the family in this country, was the Johannes Sommer, who arrived at Philadelphia Sept. 22, 1752, then his son John^2 probably was born aboard ship 16 days before the father took the pledge of allegiance in that city. And if the founder of the family was the Johns Sumer, who pledged allegiance Sept. 15, 1749, the son John^2 was of course born in this country.

At any rate, John^2 in all probability spent his youth, or at least the more mature part of it, in Manheim Township, York County, Pa., where his father held the office of Overseer of the Poor in 1768. The father was possessed of about 170 acres of land at the time he died intestate in April (?), 1773, leaving his wife and seven children, of whom John^2 was the eldest son, then five months lacking 21 years of age. There were also two married daughters, and three other sons and a daughter who were minors.

After the death of John^1 and presumably after his eldest son, John^2, had reached his majority, the latter petitioned the County Court for a division of his father's estate and the awarding to him of his "two shares" of the same. In some families of Colonial days it seems to have been the custom for the eldest son to receive two shares of the family estate, or double the portion of each of the other children. Following is a copy of this Court proceeding:

> "The Petition of John Summer, the younger, eldest son and heir at law of John Summer, the elder, deceased, was read to the Court. Setting forth that the Petitioner's father, the said John Summer, the elder, lately died intestate, owner and seized of a plantation and tract of about 170 acres of land, with appurtenances, adjoining lands of Adam Graver, the Maryland line, Henry Hartman, and Adam Steinbaugh, in Manheim Twonship in the said county, leaving a widow named Catharine and lawful issue to survive him, to wit:
> The petitioner, his eldest son; Christian Summer, Peter Summer, Andrew Summer; Elizabeth, intermarried with Joseph Forney; Catharine, intermarried with Frederick Doman (?); and Barbara Summer. That no partition or division hath been made of the premises and praying the Court to award an Inquest to make Partition or Division. of the said plantation and tract of land to and among the said widow and children of the said Intestate, if the same will admit of such partition or division without prejudice to or spoiling the whole; otherwise to value the same undivided agreeable to the form of the Acts of General Assembly of the Province of Pennsylvania in such case made and provided.
> Whereupon it is ordered and decreed by the Court that partition thereof be made by the said Catharine, the widow of the said Intestate; the said John Summer, the eldest son and heir at law of the said Intestate; the said Christian Summer; Peter Summer; Andrew Summer; the said Joseph Forney and Elizabeth, his wife in right of the said Elizabeth; the said Frederick Doman (?) and Catharine, his wife in right of the said Catharine; and the said Barbara Summer, allotting to the said John Summer, the eldest son, two shares thereof, if the same can be divided without prejudice to or spoiling the whole, and that a writ do issue to the Sheriff of York County for that purpose, ~~commanding~~ commanding him that in his proper person he go to the said Plantation and tract of land and premises, with the appurtenances, and in the presence of the parties or the guardians of such of them as are minors, by him the said Sheriff having been first warned if upon being warned they will attend and the same plantation and tract of land premises with the appurtenances by the oaths or affirmations of twelve honest and lawful men of the said County, having respect to the true value of the whole of the said premises with the appurtenances he cause to be divided between the said Catharine, widow of the said Intestate, the said John Summer, the eldest son and heir at law of the said Intestate, and all the children of the Intestate, allotting to the said John Summer, the eldest son, two shares therof, by them to be held in severalty if the same can be so divided divided without prejudice to or spoiling the whole. But in case the said premises with the appurtenances will not admit of a division in manner aforesaid without prejudice to or spoiling the whole, then it is commanded that the said Sheriff by the oaths or affirmations of the jurors affirmants aforesaid diligently inquired into the true value of the whole of the said premises with the appurtenances undivided, and the said inquisition so openly and distinctly made under his hand and seal and the hands and seals of the said jurors or affirmants together with the said Writ be returned to the next Orphan's Court after the said Inquisition is made."

Following is the final report of the Administratrix of John^1 Summer's estate, as submitted to the Court:

"Came into Court Catharine Summer, Administratrix of all and singular, the goods and chattels, rights and credits which were of the John Summer, deceased, and produced an account of her administration of the estate of the deceased as settled with the Register of the County, whereby there appears to be a balance in her hands of the sum of 161 pounds, 9 shillings, 8 pence, which being examined and approved by the Court it is thereupon ordered and decreed that the said Administratrix retain in her hands the sum of 54 pounds for her third part of said estate as widow of said deceased. "

"That she pay unto John Summer the sum of 26 pounds, 19 shillings, 11 pence for his two shares of said balance as eldest son of the said deceased; that she pay unto Joseph Forney and Elizabeth, his wife, in right of the said Elizabeth, one of the daughters of the said deceased, the sum of 13 pounds, 9 shillings, 11 half penny; that she pay unto Frederick Doman (?) and Catharine, his wife, in right of said Catharine, another of the daughters of the said deceased, the sum of 13 pounds, 9 shillings, 11 half penny; that she pay unto Christian, Peter, Andrew, and Barbara Summer, the children of the said deceased or the guardians of such of them as are minors each the sum of 13 pounds, 9 shillings 11 half penny, which several sums are in full of their respective shares of said estate and are the full amount of the balance in the hands of the said Administratrix."

The court record does not show the date of the above final account.

From the preceding court documents it will be seen that John^2 acquired by purchase the entire plantation of his father. That he married soon thereafter is indicated by the date of birth of his eldest daughter, Catharine, Oct. 25, 1776. The name of his first wife has not as yet been ascertained.

His name appears on the tax rolls of the Province of Pennsylvania of the years 1781 and 1782, as published in the Pennsylvania Archives (Series 3, Vol. 21), his taxable property in Manheim Township, York County, in 1781 being listed as 136 acres of land, 3 horses, and 5 cows, and for which he was assessed a tax of £ 3, 7s, 3d. In the following year his assessment was £7, 10s, 0d on 134 acres of land, 3 horses and 6 cows. A census taken in 1783 credits his household with 7 inhabitants, while in the first census of the newly organized United States government in 1790 he is listed as a "Head of a Family", with males over 16 years of age (including himself), males under 16, and females.

Apparently possessed of a rugged pioneering spirit and lured by tales of the vast primeval forested areas lying to the westward of the Allegheny and Ohio Rivers, with soil similar in fertility to that of his own county of York, John^2 boldly migrated to this wilderness with his family, which at that time consisted of at least eight or nine children at home, two of the older children, John^3 and Catharine^3 having already married and established homes of their own. Our first record of him in Ohio appears in 1802, in which year he took up the first of several sections of land in Columbiana County, Ohio, by direct patent from President Thomas Jefferson. He settled near the center of one of the tracts, Section 5, of Springfield Township, which is now the south-eastern township of Mahoning County. Applications and payments for homesteads in those early days had to be made at the General Land Office at Steubenville, 40 miles to the southward on the Ohio River,-- a two days journey by wagon from the locality in which he settled.

While the migration of John^3 and his family to the wilderness in Ohio was of course not so strenuous or exciting as that of the early settlers of the Far West who travelled the Oregon Trail, it was an ardurous task, nevertheless, to transport a family of eight or ten children by wagon over the Allegheny Mountains and across the Ohio River, together with the necessary supplies, household effects, tools, implements, seed and livestock to get a start in the new country. The distance was about the same as from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, which, as late as 1812, required 20 days by wagon, with freight charges of $5.00 per cwt. for both persons and freight, and way expenses of $12.00 per person.

About the same time there settled in the same locality of Ohio pioneers of the Stump, Hahn, Haas and Myers families, members of which intermarried with the Summer family in later generations.

Tradition has it that John^3 was the father of 23 children and that he had three wives. This has not been authenticated by actual records, the only data of record being the names of 15 of his children, as enumerated in his will made in 1820, 18 years before his death, and the name of one, and perhaps two, of his wives. His last wife is thought to be Sarah Hahn, who is shown by marriage license records of Columbiana County, Ohio, to have married John Summer, April 8, 1820. This assumption is tentative, however, pending proof that the John Summer is our John^3. The fact remains that he was a widower at that time, and so far as we have been able to learn there was no other marriageable John Summer in the county at that time.

His religious characteristics are disclosed in a measure from the fact that each of the nine sons mentioned in his will bears a Biblical name. There is a futther tradition that another son participated in the War of 1812, and whether he was dead, or had not been heard from again, or was purposely omitted from the will is not known. Research in the roster of Ohio soldiers of the War of 1812 shows only one soldier by the name of Summer, and his first name was Isaac. This, it will be noted, is another Biblical name, and in all probability another of John's^3 numerous family. The other children probably died before the date of the will, or possibly some of them may have been intentionally omitted from that document.

For various considerations John^2 deeded much of his extended real estate holdings to eleven of his children, as shown by real estate transfers on record in Columbiana County, Ohio. From these it is learned that in November, 1815, he had a wife named Elizabeth, and whose family name is known to have been Snyder. That Elizabeth died betwen this time and July, 1817, when another sale of real estate was made, is indicated from the fact that no wife signed the deed covering this latter sale. Likewise, no wife is mentioned in ~~1820x~~ his will, executed in 1820, the month and day of the year being left blank in the document. If he married the Sarah Hahn, above mentioned, on April 8, of that year, it seems probable that the will was made prior to that date.

Following is a copy of his will: Recorded Lisbon, Ohio.Common Pleas 1,

At a special court held by the Associated Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for said County at the courthouse in New Lisbon, on the ~~18~~ 19th day of November, 1838, the written will was brought into Court and probate thereof had agreeable to law, wherefore the Court directed it and the ________ taken to be recorded.

(Signed) Wm. E. Reepele
Clerk.

Public sale of personal property was held Dec. 6, 1838, by George Hoke and David Summer, Executors.

John^{3} was one of the founders of the Tunker or German Baptist faith (now called Church of the Brethren) in Columbiana County, Ohio. His sons David and Daniel were chosen for the ministry of the local congregation, which at first worshipped in the homes and barns of the members and later erected a house of worship on the southern line of John's^{3} Section 5, farm. His strict adherence to the tenets of the denomination is portrayed by the stipulation in his will "to settle, pay off, and collect as far as the rules of our church will admit of". This probably referred to the practice of the early church, forbidding "brethren to go to law with one another." He donated the land for "God's Acre" near the center of Section 5, Springfield Tp., and in which repose his body and those of a number of his descendants. His grave is marked by an inscribed slab in perfect state of preservation, the engraving being as sharp and legible as though it had been done yesterday, despite its having weathered the storms of a century. No record is found of the graves of his wives, the first of whom probably died in Pennsylvania before the migration of the family to Ohio.

ltzschwamm Lutheran and Reformed Church was established in 75 but the extant register begins in 1813. Lower Windsor Lutheran urch was establiashed circa 1763. The same is true of Lower ndsor Reformed Church established in 1764. Other early churches ose registers have not been found include: Lewisberry Lutheran urch, Trinity Lutheran Church in Jackson Township, and Emanuel's formed Church in Windsor Township.

Genealogists must also note that several denominations in York unty, namely the Mennonites, and the German Baptist Brethern, had tradition of maintaining early church records.

Second, York County boundaries have changed since the county s established in 1749. Portions of York County became part of ams County in 1800. Researchers must remember that the church, eting, and pastoral records used for this compilation are those ords found within York County boundaries as they exist in 1998.

Third, the inclusion of birth and/or baptismal information in this npilation does not necessarily mean the infants were born in York unty or that their families even lived there.

Fourth, it is important to keep in mind this book is not intended as a ostitute source for York County church, meeting, and pastoral ords; rather, it is intended to facilitate access to those records. nily historians who are able to determine that one or several of their estors were born in York County should consult the original record a transcription of that record to verify information obtained from text and to gather any additional information.

Special thanks must be extended to the York County Historical ciety for granting permission to use several records translated by ary J. Young.

Chapter XV.

A BARGAIN DEAL IN HATS.

One of the first settlers in Springfield Township was John Summers a Dunkard, who established his home in the north west part early in 1802.

Summers proved to be one of the few pioneers who kept a written record of events partaining to his family, and general community history. This family tradition has continued up to the present generation. Summers was a true example of the prosperous Pennsylvania Dutch farmer, noted for solid prosperity, permanent citizenry and large family.

By the summer of 1835 Summers and his good wife had been blessed with a remarkably large family of twenty one sons and three daughters.

On or about this time an enterprising hat maker had opened up a shop at Ginger Hill on the south east corner of the road intersection to the appreciation and great interest of the community.

True to the social standards of pioneer days, Summers one day on returning from the flax mill at New Middletown, stopped at the hat shop to make a social call and get acquainted with his new neighbor.

During the course of the visit the proprietor attempted to sell Summers a new hat, but was told he would be interested a little later in getting a new hat for each of his boys. The proprietor with an eye for business asked Summers how many boys he had, and was told 21, the hat maker believed him joking and volumteered the statement that if Summers had 21 boys, and would bring them to the hat makers hop at the same time he would be glad to present each with a new hat.

Summers to the astonishment of the proprietor accepted the proposition, returned home immediately, and hitching his team to the hay wagon, loaded his 21 boys on the conveyance and hauled them to the hat shop, where true to his word the proprietor gave each a new hat. This event was to add popularity not only to the Summers family, but to the old hat shop of Ginger Hill over a period of many years.

Dear Carolyn,

Jan = KTompk7744@aol.com
And I pasted her information on the bottom of this e-mail.

I think Jan's line may very well connect to your Stumps. Can you please help her with any documents you may have on John Summers possibly being the father of Barbara Summers also?

My Stump line is more in Tulpehocken twp. Berks Co. but I try and follow all PA Stump lines to help me understand and separate them. That is how I just happened to notice there may be a connection with your lines.
Good Luck and thanks,
